

PUTTING YOU IN THE PICTURE

■ Bahrain Riders Club members visited affiliated clubs across the Middle East. A 10-man delegation travelled to the newly-formed Dhahran Riders Club in Saudi Arabia and the Kuwait Riders Club as part of efforts to strengthen relations between associations. Visits to Jordan and Syria will take place shortly. Formed under the General Organisation for Youth and Sport, the Bahrain club has more than 380 members. Above, bikers enjoy festivities at a Kuwait Riders Club party. Right, Bahrain club members at the Dhahran Riders Club event.

■ US Ambassador Adam Ereli hosted a workshop on democracy at the Albareh Art Gallery, Adliya. More than 40 people attended the event, organised by the Al Hewar Association. It focused on the use of peaceful means to achieve democratic goals. Above, Mr Ereli, left, and association president Adnan Jalal at the workshop. Right, participants at the event.

■ Al Jazeera Travels donated BD5,000 to the Bahrain Association for Mental Retardation. A cheque was presented by company chairman Abdulaziz Jassim Kanoo to association president Fareeda Abdulrahman Al Moayyed in the presence of association vice-president Dr Ahmed Al Ansari. The donation was in line with the company's efforts to support the community and fund charitable causes. Above, at the cheque presentation are, from left, company managing director Salim Ahmed Al Mannai, Dr Al Ansari, Mr Kanoo, Ms Al Moayyed, executive committee head Dr Kadhem Rajab and company public relations head Fadhel Al Nowaiser.

■ Outstanding students at Ahlia University were honoured at a special ceremony at the Gulf Hotel. Certificates were presented to 130 students for securing the highest grade point averages in their examinations. Present were university president Prof Abdulla Al Hawaj, vice-presidents Dr Bakr Hassan and Prof Wajeeh El Ali, staff and parents. Above, a student receives her certificate from Prof Al Hawaj, right, and student affairs dean Dr Mansoor Al A'ali. Right, students with officials at the ceremony.

■ The power of the mind was the focus of a talk at a dinner for 150 members and guests of the Bahraini French Business Club (CAFB). The monthly gathering was held at the Golden Tulip Hotel and featured a motivational speech by Ashe Wellness Consultancy chief executive officer and founder Myrna Fouad Saliba. Above, Ms Saliba, right, receives a plaque from CAFB chairman Abdulla Juma, right, at the dinner are, from left, CAFB members Waleed Sharif, Khalid Al Khatib and Abdul Hameed Hatam.

■ The Youth Association of St Peter's Jacobite Church visited a labour camp at Turk Mechanical Industries, Ma'ameer, to mark International Labour Day. More than 150 labourers took part in various programmes, including dental check-ups and classes on fire safety. The event was inaugurated by Fr Thomas Nedyapalacki and the chief guest was Turk Mechanical Industries managing director Wahid Akbar. Above, a worker undergoes a dental check-up.

■ Fifty members of the Indian Ladies Association and their families attended a picnic at Hamala Beach Resort. The monthly outing featured games, kite-flying, karaoke and swimming.